

In the fiftieth year since his death in 1965...

The Tenth Annual

T. S. Eliot

FESTIVAL

Saturday
18th July 2015
at
Little Gidding

A day of talks, readings and discussion in the inspirational grounds of Little Gidding

ROBERT CRAWFORD

The author of the acclaimed biography Young Eliot will be asking: Was Eliot ever young?

LYNDALL GORDON

The celebrated Eliot scholar with a talk entitled: Footfalls Echo in the Memory – Eliot's Expatriation

JEWEL SPEARS BROOKER

One of the Volume Editors reports from the international project to put Eliot's complete prose writings online

For full details visit the Events page at www.eliotsonline.org.uk
For tickets contact Oundle Box Office 01832 274734 or www.oundlefestival.org.uk
4 New Street, Oundle, Peterborough PE8 4ED

Held in the grounds of Ferrar House, Little Gidding, Cambridgeshire, incorporating the church which inspired the last of Eliot's Four Quartets

Ferrar House, Little Gidding, Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire PE28 5RJ
Telephone: (+44) (0)1832 293383
For directions see <http://www.littlegidding.org.uk/visit>

Saturday 18 July 10:30am

Sessions start at 11:00

Lunch provided

Close at 5:30pm

Tickets: £40

(£32 for members of
the TS Eliot Society and Friends of Little Gidding)

